Want to be part of a group of top business leaders that will try to set priorities for Ann Arbor's future in our region?

You might want to attend "Impact 2009" Wednesday, Sept. 30, at Kensington Court in Ann Arbor.

The annual event, planned by the Ann Arbor Area Chamber of Commerce and A2success, aims to help focus strategies to position Ann Arbor for growth.

"We're bringing together an array of area community and business leaders to network and enhance their knowledge and understanding of policy issues affecting the region in the hope of generating action. We really want attendees to become engaged in one or more of the topic areas," said Kyle Mazurek, vice president of government affairs for the chamber.

"We want to tap into the attendees' collective wisdom. And so one highlight, for me, will be the whole room breakout session report outs toward the latter half of the program."

Impact 2009 begins with registration at 7:30 a.m. and adjourns at 1 p.m.

To join the discussion or view the program, you can register by calling (734) 665-4433 or visiting www.annarborchamber.org.
